Issue #76 (6 February 2007)

The Yang Water Tiger month has started.
This also marks the start of the new year of Yin Fire Pig.
The dominant energies for this month will be Water and Wood.
These elements are quite positive for the Nasdaq Index.

The Metal months have given us a flat market.
This is a likely indication that we are still on the way up.
Next 3 months have positive values in our FPF index, so we expect the market to put in a top during this period, and probably the top for the entire year.

Here is our FPF prediction chart for the Nasdaq in 2007:

(Predictive chart made with FPF 1.1 software, available at <http://www.chinesecycles.com/fpf.php>)

Nasdaq

Nasdaq has passed the Metal months period without any damage.
What next?

While a late dip remains possible this February, I think we will go on hovering near the top range of the trendchannel (see chart below)

Despite this apparent strength in the market I am not very optimistic for next summer and autumn.
So this is an opportunity to sell stocks.

Here is our updated prediction chart for Nasdaq:

Gold

We advised to take the chance to buy gold stocks near 130 on the XAU, and that looks like a good strategy so far.

The XAU index is back up to 140 already.

I expect this market to break out to the upside later this year, so we just stay patient.

Get out if the XAU drops below 115.

Here is the updated chart:

Euro - US Dollar

The Euro seems to be well on track to create a bottom in our expected February-March timeframe.

A rally in Euro is likely to start in the coming weeks.
You can still buy Euro anywhere between 1.30 - 1.28
