

Four Pillars Finance Newsletter

Issue #42 (5 April 2004)

The Yang Earth Dragon month starts today.

We have seen the stock market fall to just below 1900 on the Nasdaq, and then rebound quite strongly towards the end of the month.

In our February newsletter we had predicted such a pullback towards the 1700 - 1900 area in March, so now we got that behind us.

The rather mild pullback and quick rebound we are seeing already, now makes it likely we will go to a new high or at least double top in April or early May.

As you can see from our FPF prediction graph for 2004, April has a strong positive value and likely to produce some kind of top.

Nasdaq

The Nasdaq decline in March has now created a nice uptrend channel as you can see in the chart below.

We look forward to a continuing rally in April, up to the January highs of 2150 and possibly exceeding them. In that case 2250 - 2350 becomes the next target.

If that comes to pass it will be a great selling opportunity, as we will next head in the Metal months during June / July

Here is the updated prediction chart for Nasdaq:

Gold

Gold stocks held up well near the 100 level on the XAU

April/ May are Earth months when we frequently get important lows for gold stocks.
The market is only just above an important uptrendline, so any fall below 100 during the next month could produce a sell off to much lower levels.

Anywhere near 80 - 85 will be a great long term buying opportunity.

Euro - US Dollar

No changes in the Euro - US$ market.

We are bottoming out near 1.20 , as predicted, and we expect a new rally in the Euro to start in May
