Issue #70 (8 August 2006)

The Yang Fire Monkey month has started.
The dominant energies for this month will be Fire and Metal.
These elements are usually negative for the Nasdaq Index.

The predicted rebound in the Nasdaq was only very weak.
Many other major indexes did move to their highest levels since May, but the Nasdaq has been lagging.
We are now entering two months with negative FPF value in August and September.

So we look for a bottom and probable buying opportunity in August/September.

Here is our FPF prediction chart for the Nasdaq :

(Predictive chart made with FPF 1.1 software, available at <http://www.fourpillars.net/finance/fpf.php>)

Nasdaq

FPF Index: - 30.35 (down from + 11.6 last month)

The Nasdaq is still in a weak uptrend channel (see chart).

But with two negative months coming up we have a risk here of falling below that channel.

Our prediction remains the same

We should either hold in the trendchannel near 2000, or fall further towards the 1800 area (see chart).

In either case, longer term investors can get ready to buy in September.

We will probably see the start of a new rally upwards from expected August/September lows.

Here is the updated prediction chart for Nasdaq:

Gold

FPF Index: + 7.6 (up from -36.2 last month)

Gold market behaved as expected.

We are well on track to see our predicted second peak in the 150's for the XAU Index this August, then a new drop into October/November low.

That's when we will look for new purchases in this market.

Here is the updated chart:

Euro - US Dollar

FPF Index: +35.8 (down from +36.4 last month)

The prediction for the Euro remains on track as well.

We still look for a peak in the 1.31 – 1.36 area by September.
But we would take profits in the Euro if we get there

So, still holding on to the Euro for now, but getting ready to sell.
