Issue #52 (3 February 2005)

The Yang Earth Tiger month is starting today.

The Nasdaq declined below 2050 as we had predicted since last December.

Our FPF prediction chart for the Nasdaq goes to positive for February and March, we look forward to an important top in this period:

(Predictive chart made with FPF 1.1 software, available at <http://www.fourpillars.net/finance/fpf.html>)

Nasdaq

FPF Index for February: + 31.4 (up from -15.8 last month)

The Nasdaq made a dip to 2000 and ended the month at 2070.

The FPF is now turning positive.

We are likely to see some upside action in the next months, but it will be a selling opportunity before we head into the Metal months next April/May.

Probable upside target is around 2150 - 2200 in February or March.

Here is the updated prediction chart for Nasdaq:

Gold

FPF Index for February: - 60.2 (down from +2.7 last month)

We are heading into the Earth months, our projected period for a bottom in Gold stocks.

The gold stocks have continued their erosion and ended the month at 91 on the XAU index.

Look for a bottom and buying opportunity in February or March.

The FPF momentum index (below the chart) is starting to show improvement and positive divergence already. This usually precedes rising prices 1 to 3 months later

Our projected buy target still stands at 85-90 on the XAU.

Use a protective stop-loss at 80.

Here is the updated chart:

Euro - US Dollar

FPF Index for February: +14.8 (up from +3.5 last month)

No changes in the prediction for Euro/Dollar.

The Euro has fallen back to 1.30 last month. The predicted sideways move is underway.

The FPF index is slightly positive for February and March. The Euro should have a slightly upward bias next months. A rise to 1.34 is easily possible

Longer term we expect up and down trading with the Euro reaching a bottom just under 1.30 by next June/July
