Issue #65 (5 March 2006)

The Yin Metal Rabbit month has started.
The dominant energies for this month are Metal and Wood.
Wood is usually a positive for stock markets, but Metal is strongly negative.

So far our predicted downmove has been very mild, and the Nasdaq seems to be in a sideways pattern.

We still look for a bottom in this Rabbit month (5 March till 4 April period)

Here is our FPF prediction chart for the Nasdaq :

(Predictive chart made with FPF 1.1 software, available at <http://www.fourpillars.net/finance/fpf.php>)

Nasdaq

FPF Index: -27.9 (up from -33.4 last month)

Very little change in the Nasdaq this month, staying close to 2300.

We have another negative FPF month to go for Nasdaq, but April (Dragon month) looks pretty good. So we expect a bottom in March followed by an upmove in April.

Projected bottom target is in the 2050-2150 range.

You can buy if these levels are reached, but get out if the Nasdaq drops below 2030.

Here is the updated prediction chart for Nasdaq:

Gold

FPF Index: -14.1 (down from -5.7 last month)

Gold stocks got into a swift correction , a possibility we mentioned last month.

It probably does not finish the uptrend in gold stocks however.
Based on the Chinese cycles we look for a new push higher into an April-May peak.

Still hold on to these gold stocks for the longer term.

Here is the updated chart:

Euro - US Dollar

FPF Index: +39.1 (down from +40.28 last month)

The Euro spent most of the month in our buy target zone below 1.20
So there was plenty of opportunity to get in at 1.19 even 1.18

This looks like a very good base for our expected uptrend to start.

The FPF prediction chart for Euro is very positive till end of the year, so we expect the Euro to move solidly higher in coming months.

Watch the blue downtrendline in the chart for the breakout to the upside.

Initial upward target is 1.26, next 1.36
